Part one

Introductory Provisions

Article 1

General Provisions

(1) The Czech University of Life Sciences Prague (hereinafter “CULS”) is a public higher education institution of the university type within the system of higher education institutions in the Czech Republic. Its competence is determined by Section 1, et seq., Act No. 111/1998 Coll., on Higher Education Institutions and on Amending and Supplementing Other Acts (Act on Higher Education Institutions), as amended (hereinafter the “Act”).

(2) CULS, its faculties, university institutions and other components carry out educational activities in accredited Bachelor’s, Master’s and Doctoral programmes of study and programmes of lifelong education. In relation thereto, CULS carries out scientific and research, developmental and innovation, artistic or other creative activities (hereinafter “creative activities”) and activities relating thereto. In relation to fulfilling its basic task according to the previous sentence, CULS also carries out additional activities pursuant to Section 20, paragraph 2 of the Act.

(3) CULS conducts habilitation proceedings and procedures for granting full professorship in branches published on the official part of the website. The details of habilitation proceedings and procedures for granting full professorship are set out in the Rules for Habilitation Proceedings and Professorship Appointment of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague as an internal regulation of CULS pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter k), Section 72, paragraph 13, and Section 74, paragraph 7 of the Act.

(4) CULS shall be entitled to use the abbreviated name “CULS Prague” or “CULS”. In official international relations, CULS either uses the following complete name in the Czech language, or the complete name in the English language: “Czech University of Life Sciences Prague”. In normal international relations, CULS shall be entitled to use the abbreviated name in the English language: “CULS Prague” or “CULS”. English equivalents of Czech names of the parts of CULS are provided in Annex No. 2.

(5) CULS is a legal entity.

(6) The registered office of CULS is Prague – Suchbátka, Kamýcká Street No. 129. Company Id No: 60460709. Data Box Identifier: 3hdj9cb. Website (public part of CULS website, faculties, Institute of Education and Communication/hereinafter “IEC”) and other part pursuant to the Act): www.czu.cz

(7) The internal relations of CULS are governed by law, this statute and other internal regulations of CULS pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letters a) to j) of the Act, and other internal regulations of CULS determined pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter k) of the Act (hereinafter jointly the “internal regulations of CULS”), a list of which is specified in Annex No. 1. Furthermore, regulations of lower legal force issued in particular for determining process procedures at CULS and for determining rights and obligations of CULS employees (hereinafter “internal rules of CULS”); the internal rules of CULS are particularly considered directives, decisions, measures or normative acts that are published on the CULS website.

Article 2

Formation of CULS

(1) CULS was established by Governmental Decree No. 30/1952 Coll., on Changes in the Organization of Higher Education Institutions. The origin of university agricultural education in Bohemia dates back to 1906, when the first independent agricultural higher education institute was established as an agricultural department attached to the Czech Technical University by the Decree dated 26 October 1906 of Franz Joseph I. This department was transformed into the University of Agricultural and Forestry Engineering of the Czech Technical University in 1920, and this organizational structure remained unchanged until 1952, which saw the establishment of the independent University of Agriculture Prague.

(2) The original name of CULS - "University of Agriculture Prague" was subsequently changed into "Czech University of Life Sciences Prague" by Act No. 192/1994 Coll.

(3) The Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, which is a public higher education institution in compliance with the Act since 1 January 1999, is a legal successor of the following entities: Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, CULS Dormitories and Mensa, CULS Farm Estate at Lány and CULS Forest Establishment at Kostelec nad Černými lesy.

Part Two

Academic Community and Bodies of CULS

Article 3

Academic Community of CULS

(1) The CULS Academic Community is defined in Section 3 of the Act; it shall perform self-governance of CULS either directly or through CULS self-governing bodies.

(2) The CULS Academic Community shall be summoned to discuss important matters, information or measures; in particular, when candidates for the office of Rector are presented before a candidate is elected as Rector, or to vote on a motion to dismiss the Rector, or on ceremonial occasions of a university-wide or social nature.

(3) The right to convene an assembly of the CULS Academic Community shall pertain to the Rector or the Chairman of the CULS Academic Senate

Article 4

- (1) The Rector shall be represented by Vice-Rectors in the scope that the Rector determines. Their legal status and competences are set out by Section 10, paragraph 4 of the Act. Vice-Rectors are appointed and dismissed by the Rector upon a statement from AS CULS pursuant to Section 9, paragraph 2, letter b) of the Act.
- (2) At CULS, Vice-Rectors are generally appointed for areas of education, science and research, international relations, strategies, information systems, school undertakings, external relations, ensuring of quality educational creative activities and accreditation, and for other areas not specified above.
- (3) Vice-Rectors particularly manage activities in the section entrusted to them. The definitions of the activities of individual Vice-Rectors are set out by the Rector via an internal regulation of CULS. The Rector shall also determine which of the Vice-Rectors shall represent him in his absence, and the mutual representation of Vice-Rectors.

Article 7
Scientific Board of CULS

- (1) The legal status and competences of the CULS Scientific Board (hereinafter "CULS SB") are set out by Section 12 of the Act. In accordance with Section 12, paragraph 3 of the Act, to the CULS Council for Internal Evaluation are fully entrusted the competences of CULS SB pursuant to Section 12, paragraph 1, letters b), c) and e) of the Act.
- (2) The Chairman of CULS SB is the Rector.
- (3) Members of CULS SB are appointed and dismissed by the Rector upon prior consent from AS CULS.
- (4) Membership in CULS SB is honorary and not substitutable.
- (5) Members of CULS SB are renowned experts and representatives of branches in the scope of which the University performs educational and creative activities. A minimum of one third of members shall be persons other than members of the CULS Academic Community.
- (6) CULS SB shall make decisions regarding the awarding of the honorary degree "doctor honoris causa" (abbreviated "dr.h.c."), the "honourable professor" title, and CULS SB shall approve granting of memorial medals or other awards. The conditions for awarding these titles and medals shall be determined by the regulations for awarding honorary titles and medals of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague as an internal regulation of CULS.
- (7) Rules of meetings and course of action of CULS SB are set out by the Rules of Procedure of the Scientific Board of Czech University of Life Sciences Prague as an internal regulation of CULS pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter e) of the Act.

Article 8
Council for Internal Evaluation of CULS

(1) In accordance with Section 12a, paragraph 1 of the Act, the Council for Internal Evaluation of CULS (hereinafter “CULS CIE”) shall be established at CULS. Its legal status and competences are set out by Section 12a of the Act. Over and above the competences set out in Section 12a, paragraph 4 of the Act, in accordance with Section 12, paragraph 3 of the Act, CULS CIE shall be fully entrusted with the competences of CULS SB pursuant to Section 12, paragraph 1, letters b), c) and e) of the Act, in particular:

- a) approval of programmes of study submitted by the Rector nominated by the Scientific Board of a faculty or IEC; without this proposal for programmes of study that do not take place at faculties or CULS and IEC;
- b) approval of the intent to submit a request for accreditation, expansion of accreditation or extension of the validity period of accreditation of programmes of study submitted by the Rector nominated by the Scientific Board of the relevant faculty or IEC; without this proposal for programmes of study that do not take place at a faculty or CULS and IEC;
- c) approval of the intent to submit a request for accreditation of habilitation proceedings or proceedings to be appointed by a professor submitted by the Rector nominated by the Scientific Board of the relevant faculty; without this proposal for proceedings that do not take place at a faculty.

(2) CULS CIE has 21 members. The Chairman of CULS CIE is the Rector. The AS CULS Chairman is a member of CULS CIE.

(3) Upon the prior consent of AS CULS, the Rector appoints and dismisses the Vice Chairman of CULS CIE from the ranks of CULS academic staff, who are professors or associate professors, and other members of CULS CIE, and the Rector appoints a Vice Chairman and 4 members at his discretion, 7 members nominated by AS CULS and 7 members nominated by CULS SB. Six members nominated by AS CULS shall always be nominated in such a way that each faculty has one representative and the seventh member nominated by AS CULS shall always be nominated from amongst students. Members nominated by CULS SB shall always be nominated in such a way that each faculty and IEC have one representative. If the Rector does not appoint the person nominated to be a CULS CIE member, the Rector shall be obliged to justify this fact to the proposer. The composition of CULS CIE reflects the area of education in which accredited programmes of study take place at CULS.

(4) If the office of a CULS CIE member is terminated before the expiration of his or her terms of office, a new member shall only be appointed for the remainder of the term of office. If the office of a CULS CIE member is terminated or if the Rector does not appoint the person nominated to be a CULS CIE member, a similar procedure for nominating and appointing set out in paragraph 3 shall be used, and in the event of a new member, and a nominating body is a body that originally nominated the member whose office of CULS CIE member is being terminated, or who was not appointed by the Rector.

Part Four Study at CULS

Article 21 Programmes of Study

(1) CULS provides accredited Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral programmes of study pursuant to Sections 44 to 47a of the Act.

(2) The list of accredited Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral programmes of study, including their types and profiles, forms of teaching, standard duration of studies and information about their accessibility for people with disabilities, as well as other information pursuant to Section 21, paragraph 1, letters h) to j) of the Act are published in the public section of the CULS website.

(3) A programme of study is specified in the study plan. The study plan outlines the time and the content sequence of courses, form of their study and method of verifying study results in accordance with Section 44, paragraph 3 of the Act.

(4) The authorization of CULS to carry out programmes of study under the conditions set out by the Act arises from institutional accreditation, or from accreditation of the programme of study.

(5) A supervisor is appointed for each programme of study from the academic staff. The supervisor of the programme of study is appointed and dismissed by the Dean of the relevant faculty, or by the IEC Director. The supervisor of a programme of study is responsible for the securing and development of the professional level of a programme of study, regular evaluation, and for ensuring its quality and content-based coordination of instruction.

(6) Instruction may be provided at the seat of CULS or in locations where CULS provides accredited programmes of study.

Article 22 Admission Procedure

(1) The general requirements for being accepted to study at CULS and the requisites of the admission procedure are set out by Sections 48 to 50 of the Act.

(2) The admission procedure for the given academic year shall be announced by a faculty or IEC upon prior approval by the academic senate of the faculty, or AS CULS in the case of IEC, in the form of an order of the Dean or IEC Director in relation to the Act, the internal regulations of CULS and the internal rules of CULS (hereinafter "admission procedure declaration"), which is published in the public part of the website of the faculty or IEC.

(3) The admission procedure declaration sets out the detailed rules for the admission procedure and the requirements for being accepted to studies, and must contain, in particular:

- a) information on the course of the admission procedure and requirements for admission to study,
- b) the method and form of submitting an application for study,
- c) the method of payment of the fee for acts related to the admission procedure set out pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 1 of the Act and the method of proving the payment,

- d) the method and form of inviting candidates to an entrance examination, the form and content of the entrance examination with the specification of subjects and required knowledge,
- e) the method of assessing the results of the entrance examination and other facts proving the prerequisites for studying the given study programme,
- f) criteria for waiving the entrance examination,
- g) other criteria for being accepted for study for individual programmes of study and other requisites set out by the law for administrative proceedings pursuant to Section 50 of the Act (hereinafter “procedure for admission of a candidate to study”),
- h) the method of assessing excuses during an absence during an entrance examination, or the determination of the possibility to take the entrance examination on an alternative date, and
- i) binding dates for candidates, CULS and the faculty or IEC, primarily dates of entrance examinations and dates when candidates will be allowed to access their files in accordance with Section 50, paragraph 5 of the Act.

(4) Applications for study shall be sent by candidates in electronic form according to the instructions set out in the admission procedure declaration. Delivery of an application for study in the form set out in the admission procedure declaration shall initiate the procedure for admission of a candidate to study; to this procedure apply the relevant proper provisions of the Act and Act No. 500/2004 Coll., Code of Administrative Procedure, as amended (hereinafter the “Code of Administrative Procedure”); participants of these proceedings shall only be applicants whose application for study this regards.

(5) Applications for study shall be submitted by the deadline set out by the admission procedure declaration. In exceptional cases, the Dean or the IEC Director shall decide on accepting an application at a later date.

(6) If a candidate fails to fulfil the requisites required in the admission procedure declaration, this may constitute a reason to halt the procedure for admission of a candidate to study.

(7) A protocol shall be kept of an entrance examination, in which are recorded the results of such an examination and evaluation of other facts that are relevant for admission to study.

(8) The decision by which is granted a request of a candidate for admission to study may be delivered to a candidate via the CULS electronic information system in accordance with Section 69a, paragraph 1 of the Act; in such a case the date of the delivery and notification of the decision shall be considered the first day after the decision is made available to the candidate in the CULS electronic information system. The requisites of other forms of delivery in the procedure for admission of a candidate to study are set out by the Act, the Code of Administrative Procedure, or in the admission procedure declaration.

(9) A candidate shall be entitled to file an appeal against a decision that did not grant the request of the candidate for admission to study, and it shall be submitted to the Rector via the Dean of the faculty or IEC Director (as an Administrative Authority of the First Instance that issued the decision being appealed), within 30 days from the date the decision was announced. The appeal must have the requisites specified in Section 37, paragraph 2, Code of Administrative Procedure, and it must contain data about the decision it regards, in what scope it is being appealed, and where a violation of legal regulations or incorrectness of the decision or proceedings that preceded it, is being perceived. The Dean or the IEC Director can only fully allow the appeal and cancel or change their decision due a violation of the law or internal regulation of CULS or part thereof; otherwise, they shall submit the appeal to the Rector as the administrative body of appeal pursuant to Section 68, paragraph 5 of the Act. During an appeal, the Rector shall proceed pursuant to Section 68, paragraph 6 of the Act and pursuant to the Code of Administrative Procedure. Pursuant to Section 10, paragraph 4 of the Act, the Rector can be represented by the Vice-Rector with regard to a decision on an appeal pursuant to this paragraph.

Article 23
Course of Study

The requisites of a course of study are set out by Sections 51 to 57 of the Act; the details of a course of study and decision-making on the rights and obligations of students pursuant to Section 68 of the Act are set out by the Study and Examination Rules for Bachelor and Master Study Programmes of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague and the Study and Examination Rules for PhD studies of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague (hereinafter jointly the “Study Rules”). The relevant provisions of the Act and the Code of Administrative Procedure apply for the decision-making on the rights and obligations of students pursuant to the Act.

Article 24
Conditions for Admission and Study of Foreigners

(1) In addition to the conditions set out by this statute, the requirements for admitting foreigners for study are subject to fulfilment of obligations that arise from international treaties concluded by the Czech Republic, and agreements concluded by CULS.

(2) With the exception of foreigners who study pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 4 of the Act, CULS shall test foreigners in terms of their knowledge of the Czech language as part of the admission procedure. This condition shall be fulfilled by foreigners who achieved complete secondary education with graduation exam, or completed Bachelor’s, Master’s or Doctoral study programmes taught in the Czech or Slovak languages.

(3) Foreigners shall study in the programmes of study provided by CULS under the same conditions as other students, unless otherwise stipulated in international treaties that are binding for the Czech Republic, or a CULS agreement that must be concordant with these international treaties.

Article 25
Fees related to Study and Payments for Administrative Acts and Administrative Services

(1) The basic rules for fees related to study are set out by Section 58 of the Act. General regulations on fees do not apply to fees related to study.

(2) The amount of the fee for acts associated with the admission procedure pursuant to Section 58, paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Act shall be at most 20% of the base set out pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 2 of the Act; the specific amount of the fee is determined and published pursuant to paragraph 11. Every candidate wishing to study at CULS shall be obliged to pay the fee, and the fee shall be due by the deadline set out in the admission procedure declaration.

(3) Pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 3 of the Act, the amount of the fee for study (hereinafter “fee for prolonged study”) is at least one and a half times the basis set out pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 2 of the Act for each additional six months of study of a student for whom the fee for prolonged study is assessed; the specific amount of the fee is determined and published pursuant to paragraph 11. Students who fulfil the condition for determining a fee for prolonged study pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 3 of the Act, shall be obliged to pay the fee; the due date of the fee is part of decision on the assessment of the fee. The decision to assess this fee is issued by the Vice-Rector, who is entrusted to do so by the Rector, within 30 days from the date the fact was ascertained that the student is obliged to pay the fee for prolonged study, and at least 90 days before the fee is due; the fee is always assessed for a period of six months, starting from the date that specific fee obligations arises; in accordance with Section 68, paragraph 3 of the Act, the issuance of a decision is the first act in the proceedings.

(4) Pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 4 of the Act, the amount of the fee for study in a programme of study in a foreign language (hereinafter “fee for study in a foreign language”) for a specific CULS faculty shall be determined by the Dean of the faculty, whilst taking into consideration in particular the economic demands of the study, the costs for ensuring the quality of the study and the current situation in a similar area of education, after prior discussion in the CULS Rector’s Advisory Board; the specific fee amount is published pursuant to paragraph 11.

(5) The decision on the assessment of the fee for study in a foreign language pursuant to paragraph 4 shall be issued by the Dean or his entrusted Vice-Dean of a faculty, and the fee shall be due before registering for study, or before the date of registration for study in the following year; the Dean or his entrusted Vice-Dean may decrease the fee amount to the level of the fee amount that was valid in the academic year in which the student registered for study. In accordance with Section 68, paragraph 3 of the Act, the issuing of the decision pursuant to this paragraph is the first act in the proceedings.

(6) Students shall be entitled to appeal the decision on the assessment of study fees pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4 to the Rector through the Administrative Authority of the First Instance that issued the contested Decision within 30 days from the date of notification of this decision. The appeal may include a request to decrease, waive or defer the payment of the study fee. The appeal must have the requisites specified in Section 37, paragraph 2, Code of Administrative Procedure, and it must contain data about the decision it regards, in what scope it is being appealed, and where a violation of legal regulations or incorrectness of the decision or proceedings that preceded it, is being perceived. Filing such an appeal has a suspensive effect for the payment of this fee. The Administrative Authority of the First Instance which issued the contested decision, can only fully allow the appeal and cancel or change its decision due a violation of the law or internal regulation of CULS or part thereof; otherwise, it shall transfer the appeal to the Rector as the administrative body of appeal pursuant to Section 68, paragraph 5 of the Act. During an appeal, the Rector shall proceed pursuant to Section 68, paragraph 6 of the Act and pursuant to the Code of Administrative Procedure. Within decision-making on an appeal against a decision on the assessment of fee associated with studies, pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4, the Rector may decrease, waive or defer the due date of the fee whilst taking into consideration in particular the study results and social situation of the student, or for reasons worthy of special consideration. Pursuant to Section 10, paragraph 4 of the Act, the Rector may be represented by the Vice-Rector with regard to a decision on an appeal pursuant to this paragraph.

(7) Fees associated with study pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4 and compensation for administrative acts and services provided pursuant to paragraph 10 shall generally be paid via a transfer from a bank account, or via a cash deposit at the CULS cash desk, and the fees shall be considered paid as soon as they are credited to the CULS account or paid in cash at the CULS cash desk.

(8) The provisions pursuant to this Article on the fee amount associated with study also apply to foreign students studying at CULS under the same conditions as citizens of the Czech Republic, unless otherwise stipulated in an international treaty that is binding for the Czech Republic.

(9) Fees associated with study for foreigners arriving as part of interuniversity or interfaculty contracts shall be determined by such contracts; the contracts must be in accordance with international treaties that are binding for the Czech Republic.

(10) Via an internal regulation of CULS, the Rector shall determine the payment amount for administrative acts and services provided to students outside the scope of study in a programme of study, or for other persons, and the amount of costs associated with these acts and services.

(11) The fee amounts associated with study pursuant to paragraphs 2 and 3 and the payment amount for acts and services pursuant to paragraph 10 are determined by the Rector via an internal regulation of CULS and are published in accordance with Section 58, paragraph 5 of the Act on the public part of the CULS website. The fee amounts associated with study pursuant to paragraph 4 are published in accordance with Section 58, paragraph 5 of the Act on the public part of faculty websites.

(12) Fees pursuant to paragraph 3 constitute income of the CULS scholarship fund; other fees are income from CULS educational and creative activities (hereinafter the "Main Activities of CULS").

Article 26

Recognition of Foreign University Education and Qualifications

(1) Upon the request of a foreign university graduate, if CULS carries out a programme of study that is similar content-wise to foreign university from which the applicant graduated, CULS shall issue a certificate of recognition of higher education or part thereof in the Czech Republic.

(2) The conditions under which a certificate of recognition of higher education or part thereof in the Czech Republic can be issued are determined by Sections 89 to 90a of the Act.

(3) Information on the conditions pursuant to paragraph 2 and related instructions are published in the public part of the CULS website.

Part Eight Stamps and Official Notice Boards of CULS

Article 36 CULS Stamps

(1) CULS uses a round stamp with a small state emblem of the Czech Republic and the text "Česká zemědělská univerzita v Praze" (Czech University of Life Sciences Prague).

(2) The faculties, IEC and other parts of CULS authorized to use round stamps shall use such stamps with a small state emblem of the Czech Republic and the text "Česká zemědělská univerzita v Praze" (Czech University of Life Sciences Prague), and indicate the name of the appropriate part.

(3) The use of round stamps and other stamps that are not specified in the paragraphs 1 and 2 (in particular line stamps) is regulated by an internal regulation of CULS.

Article 37 Official Notice Boards

(1) CULS and its parts have their own official notice boards established in accordance with the relevant legal regulations. The requisites relating to the content, labelling, distribution and responsibility for the contents of notice boards are set out in an internal regulation of CULS.

(2) Official notice boards are used to publish information required by legal regulations.

Part Nine Management of CULS

Article 38 Rules of Management of CULS

(1) CULS shall perform its management according to the budget of costs and revenues prepared for a calendar year. The budget must not be prepared as a deficient budget. The methodology and procedure for the creation of the CULS budget shall be issued by the Rector upon approval by AS CULS via an internal regulation of CULS. Upon approval by the Rector's Advisory Board, in accordance with the Act, the Rector shall submit the budget for approval to AS CULS and CULS MB. After the end of the given year, CULS shall conduct the settlement with the state budget and shall submit this settlement to the Ministry within the fixed time-limits.

(2) The basic sources of the CULS budget are subsidies, contributions and other incomes pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 2 of the Act and special legal regulations.¹⁾

(3) When managing funds provided from the state budget, CULS shall be obliged to economize and to use these financial means efficiently and purposefully in accordance with the conditions for the use of contributions and subsidies. The Rector shall be responsible towards the Minister of Education, Youth and Sports for the efficient use of contributions and subsidies, settlement of subsidies with the state budget and due management of assets.²⁾

(4) CULS shall be obliged to keep proper records of assets and to establish rules of disposal of assets via an integral regulation, and to adhere to general accounting regulations.

(5) CULS shall carry out management as one accounting entity, and the manner of its accounting is regulated in Section 20 of the Act. It is divided into accounting components for the internal needs of monitoring and evaluating costs and revenues.

(6) Within its supplementary activities, CULS shall carry out activities for consideration that are linked with its primary activities or activities that should serve for a more efficient use of human resources and assets. Within its supplementary activities, CULS shall also carry out agricultural, forestry and other activities which are necessary for ensuring further activities of CULS in the area of science, research, education and teaching, testing, or administration and management of own property. CULS shall be obliged to consistently separate costs and revenues related to supplementary activities. A supplementary activity may not endanger the quality, scope and availability of activities for which CULS was established.

(7) CULS shall acquire funds for securing activities provided from current funds pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 2 of the Act, in particular from:

- a) contributions from the state budget for educational and creative activities,
- b) support of research, experimental development and innovations from public funds,
- c) subsidies from the state budget,
- d) fees related to study,
- e) revenues from assets,
- f) incomes or contributions other than those specified in letter a) from the state budget, from state funds, from the National Fund, budgets of municipalities and regions,
- g) revenues from supplementary activities,
- h) revenues from gifts and inheritance.

(8) CULS shall acquire funds for ensuring activities financed from capital assets from the following, in particular from:

- a) contributions or subsidies from the state budget,
- b) individual or systemic capital transfers (investment subsidies) from the state budget,
- c) public budgets, state funds and the budget of the European Union,

¹⁾E.g. Sections 12 to 14 of Act No. 218/2000 Coll., on Budgetary Rules and on Amending Certain Related Acts (Budgetary Rules), as amended, Decree of the Ministry of Finance 560/2006 Coll., on Participation of the state Budget in Financing Assets Reproduction Programmes, Act No. 130/2002 Coll., on the Support of Research, Development and Innovations from Public Funds and Amending Certain Related Acts (the Act on Research and Development Support), as amended.

²⁾ Act No. 320/2001 Coll., on Financial Control in Public Administration and on Amending Certain Acts (the Act on Financial Control), as amended.

- d) own sources of the fixed assets reproduction fund,
- e) by combining resources,
- f) loans provided by monetary institutions,
- g) special-purpose gifts.

(9) CULS shall be legally entitled to receive contributions from the state budget in order to provide accredited programmes of study and lifelong education programmes and related creative activities, and subsidies for the development of CULS. CULS may obtain a subsidy from the state budget to accommodate and to provide meals to students.

(10) Other revenues are a source obtained through the own activities of CULS and may be used to finance its activities. If revenue is provided contractually for a specific purpose, CULS shall draw the funds in compliance with such an agreement.

(11) Capital funds acquired from individual or systemic capital transfers (investment subsidies) from the state budget shall be strictly purpose-bound and are the subject of annual settlements.

(12) CULS established the following funds:

- a) reserve fund,
- b) fixed assets reproduction fund,
- c) scholarship fund,
- d) remuneration fund,
- e) special-purpose means fund,
- f) social fund,
- g) operational means fund.

(13) Creation and use of the funds:

a) The reserve fund is formed:

- from allocation from profit after taxation,
- from the transfer of funds from the fixed assets reproduction fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund.

The reserve fund is used primarily for the following purposes:

- to cover losses of previous accounting periods,
- payment of penalties and to cover temporary lack of funds (e.g. as a source for pre-financing projects),
- to transfer funds to the fixed assets reproduction fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund.

b) The fixed assets reproduction fund, which is formed:

- from allocation from profit after taxation,
- from balance of contributions pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 2, letter a) of the Act as of 31 December of the current year,
- from book depreciations of long-term assets,
- from net book value (up to the amount of book depreciations) of assets,
- by combining funds for joint investment activities,
- by the transfer of funds from the reserve fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund

The fixed assets reproduction fund is used for the following purposes:

- to obtain long-term assets,
- to pay instalments on investment credits and loans,
- to provide funds to other entities as part of an agreement on joint investment activities,
- for contributions into legal entities and payment of costs for the establishment thereof,
- to transfer funds into the reserve fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund.

c) Scholarship fund, which is formed from:

- fees for study pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 6 of the Act,
- transfers of tax-deductible costs pursuant to a special legal regulation.³⁾

Funds from the scholarship fund can be used to pay out scholarships pursuant to the Scholarship Rules of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague as an internal regulation of CULS pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter h) of the Act.

d) The remuneration fund, which is formed from:

- allocation from profit after taxation,
- the transfer of means from the reserve fund, fixed assets reproduction fund and operational means fund

The means of the fund may be used for the following purposes:

- payment of salaries and other monetary considerations, and to finance related charges in accordance with the Internal Salary Regulation of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague as an internal regulation pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter d) of the Act,
- to transfer means from the reserve fund, fixed assets reproduction fund and operational means fund.

e) The special-purpose means fund, which is formed from:

- special-purpose gifts, with the exception of gifts intended for acquisition and technical revaluation of long-term assets,
- special-purpose funds from abroad,
- special-purpose public funds, including means of purposeful and institutional support of research and development from public funds that could not be used by CULS during the budget year in which they were provided pursuant to the rules set out by the Act.

The special-purpose means fund may be used only for the purpose for which these means have been provided to CULS.

f) The social fund, which is formed from:

- the basic allocation at the expense of costs up to the amount approved by AS CULS upon a proposal of the Rector from the annual volume of costs of CULS accounted for salaries, compensation for salaries and remuneration for the on-call duty.

The means of the social fund may be used for the following purposes:

- additional pension insurance and additional pension savings of employees in accordance with the Principles for the provision of an employer's contributions to additional pension insurance with a state contribution, and additional pension savings issued via an internal regulation of CULS, for other purposes approved by AS CULS based on the Rector's proposal.

g) The operational means fund, which is formed from:

- profit after taxation, from the balance of a contribution as pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 2, ³⁾ Section 24, paragraph 2, letter zr) Act No. 586/1992 Coll., on Value Added Tax, as amended.

letter a) of the Act as of 31 December of the current year,

- transfer of means from the reserve fund, fixed assets reproduction fund and remuneration fund
- Resources of the operational means fund may be used for the following purposes:
- to cover running (non-investment) costs in the current calendar year,
 - to transfer means to the reserve fund, remuneration fund and fixed assets reproduction fund.

(14) As necessary, CULS shall be entitled to transfer means amongst its funds, specifically via the reserve fund, fixed assets reproduction fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund. Transfers shall be decided on by the Rector.

(15) CULS may distribute profit after taxation into its funds only if any losses from previous periods have been covered. Balances of funds as of 31 December of the current year are transferred to the following budget year.

(16) When profit is distributed after taxation among individual funds of CULS, the specific needs of CULS and the contribution of organizational parts to achieving the profit shall be taken into consideration; the Rector shall decide on the distribution of profit, unless otherwise specified in the Act or another special legal regulation.

(17) The means of the budget shall only be used for financing activities for the purpose of which CULS was established, and for financing supplementary activities pursuant to Section 20, paragraph 2 of the Act.

(18) CULS shall be entitled to accept credits, returnable financial assistance and loans for running and capital expenses, so long as no claims towards the state budget arise from their acceptance, and if their returnability is secured within the management of CULS.

(19) CULS shall not be entitled to take over liability for the financial debt of another entity and to establish a lien on real estate. CULS shall not be entitled to become a shareholder of a public commercial company or a general partner of a limited partnership. CULS shall also not be authorized to contribute to commercial corporations or cooperatives immovable assets acquired into ownership from the state, a provided contribution pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 3 of the Act, and provided subsidy pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 5 of the Act. The Rector shall decide on contributions with a monetary or non-monetary subject to legal entities via a special decision upon the prior written consent of CULS MB, and in accordance with Rules for providing monetary and non-monetary contributions to legal entities and discussing proposals for the establishment of legal entities as an internal regulation of CULS pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter k) and Section 20, paragraph 3 of the Act.

(20) The state shall not be liable for CULS liabilities.

(21) Payments of sanctions are a part of CULS costs.

Article 39 Assets

(1) CULS owns assets that are necessary for the activities for which CULS was established, and for activities that it carries out in a supplementary additional activity pursuant to Section 20 of the Act.

(2) CULS may only acquire securities issued by the State, or securities whose payment the State guaranteed, or securities of a commercial corporation in which CULS invested assets.

Article 40 Financing of Facilities

(1) CULS finances capital and running expenses of its facilities having the character of refectories, dormitories, lodging houses, educational facilities for youths and adults, operation of libraries, gymnasia and other sports facilities, if these shall serve for employees or students of CULS.

(2) If CULS uses facilities pursuant to paragraph 1 in conjunction with another entity, CULS shall contribute to costs and revenues according to the ratio of utilization as stipulated in an agreement concluded for this purpose. In addition, lump-sum payments for the pro rata part of utilization of these facilities may be stipulated in the relevant agreement.

Article 41

Provision of Contributions to other Persons

- (1) In accordance with the relevant legal regulations, CULS shall be entitled to provide food or meals allowance for employees.
- (2) CULS shall be entitled to provide contributions to students' meals from the funds of subsidies granted by the Ministry, and from its own resources.

Part Ten

Interim and Closing Provisions

Article 42

Interim Provisions

- (1) During the period for which the division of programmes of study into fields of study is maintained in accordance with Article II, Item 4 of Act No. 137/2016 Coll., the provisions of this statute relating to programmes of study pursuant to Section 44 to 47 of the Act shall apply accordingly.
- (2) In an internal regulation or internal rule of CULS or part thereof that references the wording of a statute effective before this statute comes into effect, the reference to the relevant provisions of this statute shall be exercised.

Article 43

Closing Provisions

- (1) The Statute of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague registered by the Ministry on 21 January 2013 under file no. 2 900/2013-30, as amended, is cancelled.
- (2) This Statute was approved pursuant to Section 9, paragraph 1, letter b) of the Act by AS CULS on 14 December 2016.
- (3) This Statute shall become valid pursuant to Section 36, paragraph 4 of the Act on the date it is registered by the Ministry.
- (4) This Statute shall become effective on the date it is published on the public part of the CULS website.
